

News

The club ran a couple of red point Wednesdays in March and these were well attended. On the March 8 session Cynthia Adler and Leona Leeman won with the impressive total of 71.2%. This is only the second pair to attain membership of the 70% club this year. The competition must be getting stiffer.

The last lesson for the beginners' course ended on March 28. The participants have been seen enjoying acquiring their new knowledge. We look forward to seeing them in the supervised session where they can apply their skills.

Don't forget the AGM, to be held on Saturday April 1st. Yes, we are not fooling you, that is the day. A date had to be found in the limits determined by the constitution and this is the one that fitted in best.

Older News

We welcome several new members – Scott Christian, Helen Gibbs, John Rigg, Tony Taylor and Joan Taylor. We hope you have a long and successful time at the club.

We offer our condolences to the family of Doreen Jones. We were sad to hear of her death – she has been a long-standing member of the bridge community and right to the end was a fierce competitor.

Next Events

Mentor day

Thursday April 20th.

♣ ♦ ♥ ♠ ♣ ♦ ♥ ♠ ♣ ♦ ♥ ♠ ♣ ♦ ♥ ♠ ♣ ♦ ♥ ♠ ♣ ♦ ♥ ♠ ♣ ♦ ♥ ♠

Bridge Humour

After spending the night in a blizzard, a tourist in creed frostbite on his left palm and fingers. In other words, the hand was ice cold.

A land developer was appalled with the thigh estimates to complete an apartment complex, and he pleaded with the developers to lower their proposals. Almost immediately, the FHA intervened and forced him to accept the lowest proposal. In other words, he was unable to reverse the bidding

(via Kathie Perry)
